Medley, October 18th, 2000.

To whom it may concern.

We were just notified that our corporation has been administratively dissolved for having failed to file its 2000 Corporation annual report.

We respectfully submit that, for whatever reason, we never received the annual report to be filed, nor did we receive the second notice that your office apparently sent out on June 9th. We were aware that a formality such as an annual report would be required, but we honestly thought that we would receive a form from your services to fill out.

In view of the fact that we are a new company, we would very much appreciate your granting us a reinstatement and waiving or reducing the fees, which represents a very high burden for us at this point and time.

Attached you will find our Application for Reinstatement, and we hope you will be able to accept our most sincere apologies for this mishap, and our commitment that such an incident would never again occur now that we are aware of the requirements.

We thank you in advance for your kind consideration and remain,

Respectfully yours,

Michel G. Fuchs

President
