Dear Division of Corporations,

I recently received a "Uniformed business report" and on it said "Second Notice". I swear this was the first time I received any notice of it "Uniformed business report". I formed the corporation with the help of my friend last year and he never told me about this report. I know that is not an acceptable excuse, but I really did not know. I never even started the business till this year and so I did not even think I had any obligations to the IRS or any government office for the year of 1999, but I realize now that I am wrong. I spoke to clerk at the "Division of Corporations" office and he told me to write you this letter and ask for you to remove the fine. I currently cannot afford the fine because my business is struggling to survive and the fine would break me. But if you remove the fine, I promise this will never happen again. I really am sorry and please understand this is the first business I have ever run and I still am learning by the day how to run it correctly and legally.

Sincerely,

Michael Falciglia

I have been a resident of the United States for many years and I have always been a law-abiding citizen. I have never been involved in any criminal activity and I have always paid my taxes on time. I am a hardworking man and I am always looking for ways to improve myself and my business. I am very grateful for the opportunity to do business in the United States and I am committed to following all the laws and regulations. I am sorry for my mistake and I am committed to making sure it never happens again. I am a responsible person and I am always looking for ways to improve myself and my business. I am very grateful for the opportunity to do business in the United States and I am committed to following all the laws and regulations.
