Re: Brian F. Stanis Consulting, Inc. Doc. # P99000008058
2001 Uniform Business Report

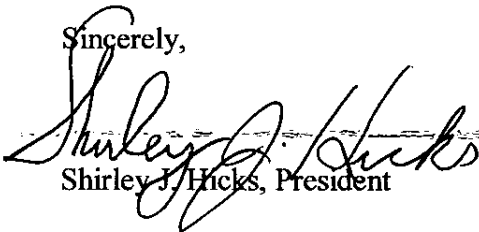

I recently received your "Second Notice" regarding the renewal of my corporation. In all honesty I have no recollection of having ever received a "First Notice". It is possible that it was received and overlooked, as I have not had my mind on my business the last few months. In recent months my young granddaughter passed away from sudden onset juvenile diabetes. With her death I went into a state of depression and had to seek professional help.

My tax accountant has advised me to write this letter explaining the circumstances surrounding my late renewal and to change the Registered Agent so that the likelihood of this happening again is almost nil.

I am asking that the penalty be abated and that my enclosed check for $150.00 be accepted as the total fee for the renewal.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

Sincerely,

Shirley J. Hicks, President
