To whom it may concern:

This is José R. Miranda, Owner of Miranda Photography, Inc. First let me apologize for having to write this letter to you. About two weeks ago I came across this document and I admit I never saw the first notice. Miranda Photography, Inc. Is a very small subchapter S Corporation. I do my own taxes since I can't afford the services of a firm to take care of that. That is the reason why I didn't know about this document, this is my first year as a corporation.

I was informed by a representative from your office to write this letter in the hope that your office will waive the penalty here imposed. My business couldn't afford to pay such high penalty. He also informed my that for the year 2001 I should be receiving my first notice by the end of February, and if not received by then that I should call you and request a copy of it, since it is due in May.

I appreciate the time taken by you to read this letter and hope that you waive the penalty imposed for this late filling which is no one else but my own fault.

Please feel free to contact me at your convenience at (954) 630-9467.

Sincerely,

José R. Miranda
