To Whom It May Concern:

I recently found out that my corporation was inactive, and I call up The Department of State, to find out why. They told me that they received my check and cash it, but that I forgot to sign the document. They said that they send me the document back to me so I could sign it and return it, but I never got the document so I didn't know about it. They told me to sign a new document and send it back to you with a letter explaining to you what had happen. I also send you a copy of the check that I send you, and you cashed.

Since I send you the money when I was suppose to I don't think I should be charge a penalty. Please reactivate my corporation as soon as you can.

Sincerely yours. Jose A. Delgado
