Division of Corporations
Reinstatement Section
P.O. Box 6327
Tallahassee, FL 32314-6327

Dear Sir or Madam:

I am writing another letter in regards to a reinstatement for my business 65-0903408.

I have spoken with a few of your representatives about my corporation. Last month I sent a letter to the division of corporations with a check for $150.00 (check # 1008) explaining what had happened and why they did not receive my payment. I was told that an outside party receives the information and checks and processes them for you. They informed me that it is possible that they lost the documentation. (I have enclosed a copy of the letter for you)

Now more than ever with the state of the economy, I truly consider this corporation to be my lifeline and your help in reinstating it is greatly appreciated. I am sending you another check for $150.00 to reinstate my corporation, Integrated Communication Solution, Inc., FEI Number 65-0903408. I do not know why my original renewal was not received, but I am confident that we can fix this situation; I guess that it was lost or miss-filed. If by chance you find that you have found the last letter and cashed the last check, could someone please return this check to the address above?

Sincerely,

Scott Kramer
Director
