Dear Sirs:

The above referenced taxpayer was in France from April 15, 2002 to October 15, 2002. During their time abroad a friend was responsible for retrieving their mail and forwarding it to them.

Your notice (copy enclosed herein) was not forwarded to them. They were completely unaware that the report was not considered filed timely due to the failure of the new registered agent to sign the report.

Upon their return to the United States they discovered this error. The new agent has signed the form as requested in your notice. We respectfully request your clemency with regard to the late filing penalty. The taxpayers acted in good faith and truly were not aware of the situation or they would have signed the form and returned it immediately.

We would greatly appreciate your abatement of the late filing penalty.

Sincerely yours,

Kathleen Bordeleau, CPA
