ARTICLES IX. RESTRICTION ON SALE OF STOCK

The corporation and, subject to the priority of the corporation, the remaining stockholders of the corporation shall have preference in the purchase of any shares of capital stock of the corporation and any attempted sale of such shares of stock in violation of this provision shall be null and void. In case a stockholder, his or her personal representative, heirs, devisees, legatees, pledges, assignees, receivers, trustee in bankruptcy, or any other person holding under or in privity with any stockholder, desires to sell his or her shares of stock, he or she shall file notice in writing of such intention with the president of the corporation stating the terms of such bona fide offer which he or she has received, and unless the terms of such offer are accepted by the corporation within ten (10) days, it shall be deemed to have waived its privilege of purchasing. In the event the corporation is legally unable to purchase such stock or otherwise waives its privilege of purchasing, the president of the corporation shall mail written notice to all remaining stockholders, by certified mail, return receipt requested, advising them of the terms of such bona fide offer, and unless the terms of such offer are accepted by any or all of the other stockholders within ten (10) days from the date of mailing such notice, they shall be deemed to have waived their privilege of purchasing, and the stockholder, or the person in privity with him or her, desiring to sell shall be at liberty to effect a sale upon the terms of such bona fide offer. No stockholder may cause the corporation or the remaining stockholders to waive their privilege of purchasing until such stockholder has received a bona fide offer for the purchase of such shares. Neither the corporation nor the remaining stockholders, (collectively), may exercise their privilege of purchasing as to any shares of stock less than the total number of shares involved in such bona fide offer.

ARTICLE X. INDEMNIFICATION

The corporation shall indemnify any officer or director or any former officer or director, to the full extent permitted by law.

ARTICLE XI. AMENDMENT

This corporation reserves the right to amend or repeal any provision contained in these Articles of Incorporation, or any amendment hereto, by a majority vote of the Board of Directors, and any right conferred upon the shareholders is subject to this reservation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, these Articles of Incorporation are subscribed by the undersigned this 14 day of January, 1999.
