Regarding: Cruises 'n More, Inc. ----- Document # P99000015697 (copy enclosed)

To whom it may Concern,

I am sending in my renewal for our corporation named above. We never received the renewal notice for our corporation. We have all intentions of remaining compliant – so I am sending you a check, an application for renewal, and this letter per the instructions contained on your phone voice mail service.

February of this year we filed a complete renewal with the Department of Agriculture for the Cruise business, which required proof of our bond and sales people. That documentation is also enclosed. On 02/21/07, our check # 1811, for $300,00 cleared compass bank. That check was to Charles Bronson (FDA) for this renewal.

My husband usually has handled all these matters in the past. He had a series of strokes last year and subsequently the duties have befallen me. I enlisted the help of my son, a minority stockholder, in this company to help with these forms. Once we completed the form for the Department of Agriculture, I thought we were in compliance for 2007, all of these forms can get confusing.

I make all of these comments to show whatever paperwork we receive we complete and return. Prior to his strokes my husband may have thought to contact the Division of Corporations as a part of his routine – for that I do not know? What I know is I am always calling my son when we receive these things for which I have never completed on our behalf personally.

Therefore, in order to remain in good standing and in order to keep my corporation active, I appeal to you to accept this renewal with the original renewal fee without penalty. I do hereby testify that I never received a renewal notice and that this notice of dissolution was the first correspondence I have received on the matter.

Thank you for your consideration and cooperation.

Sincerely,

Marjorie Poag
