Dear Sir or Madam:

I am writing in regards to the above-mentioned corporation which was dissolved due to their failure to file an Annual Report for the year 2001. I have spoken with the officers of the corporation and they concur that they did not receive an Annual Report. At this time it would be a great hardship for the corporation to pay a $1,000.00 re-instatement fee.

I hereby request that you review this matter and inform this office if there is a possibility of leniency in this regard. Please let us know as soon as possible and we will forward all the necessary documents and payments required to have the above-mentioned corporation re-instated.

Should you have any questions relative to this matter, please do not hesitate to contact this office.

Sincerely,

Ronald S. Webster
