Dear Sirs:

Enclosed please find a check for $150.00. I have sent only the original fee in hopes your office will waive the late fee. The reason I have not paid until now is because I did not receive the first notice sent out earlier this year. This is a new corporation and that may have something to do with the notice not arriving in January. I assure you it was not overlooked by me and it will always be paid on time in the future because I know to expect it in the mail. I have a family to support and would not do anything to risk incurring additional fees and/or late charges. Your understanding in this matter is greatly appreciated. Thank you very much.

Sincerely,
