Florida Dept of State,
To Whom It May Concern:

I William Ray Sivley own and operate Big Deal Charters Inc. I lost my business due to the vessel sinking June 01. The vessel had to be completely refurbished. This process took until this past Aug to get back in operation. This is my first company so I was unaware that I needed to keep the corporation in an active form or there would be a penalty fee to pay. My accountant actually started my corporation for me. All I did was sign the appropriate documents and wrote one check.

The permits are in the corporations name and Federal Fisheries Dept needs a copy of the Articles of Incorporations in order to renew them.

I am sending this letter to you in order to have the penalties removed and just pay the renewal fee. I am trying to cover all payments for the boat until season starts. It would be of great help to not have to come up with $900 to keep the corporation active.

I appreciate your consideration in removing the fees due.

Thank you,

W R SIVLEY

* In addition to the above I did not receive any ~~the~~ notices for 2003 and would like to waive them please.
