ARTICLE VI
PREEMPTIVE RIGHTS

A. The shareholders of the corporation shall have a preemptive right , granted on uniform terms and conditions prescribed by the board of directors to provide a fair and reasonable opportunity to exercise the right, to acquire proportional amounts of the corporation's unissued Common Shares upon the decision of the board of directors to issue them. For purposes of this Article, "Common shares" include a security convertible into or carrying a right to subscribe for or acquire Common shares.

B. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no Shareholder shall have preemptive rights with respect to:

1. Common Shares issued as compensation to directors, officers, agents, or employees of the corporation or its subsidiaries or affiliates;
2. Common Shares issued to satisfy conversion or option rights created to provide compensation to directors, officers, agents, or employees of the corporation or its subsidiaries or affiliates;
3. Common Shares authorized in these articles of incorporation that are issued within six months from the effective date of incorporation; or
4. Common Shares sold otherwise than for money.

C. Common Shares subject to preemptive rights that are not acquired by shareholders may be issued to any person for a period of one year after being offered to shareholders at a consideration set by the board of directors that is not lower than the consideration set for the exercise of preemptive rights. An offer at a lower consideration or after the expiration of one year is subject to the shareholders' preemptive rights.
