Exception request:

To whom it may concern:

I apologize for the lateness of this report. I called and spoke with a representative of your office who was quite sympathetic and suggested that I write and ask for an exception.

Please let me explain. I have not fully completed my move to Florida and as a result of this many pieces of mail are forwarded to California where I am approximately 60-70% of the time. Apparently the first mailing of the 2000 Uniform Business Report was either never received or lost in the mail. I realize this is an unusual request but due to the circumstances and the fact that this is the first full year that this corporation is in existence I request that you waive the penalties connected with the filing of this report.

I have enclosed my check for $150.00 as was suggested by your representative and hope that you agree that there is extenuating circumstances, which prevented the filing of the report.

Thank you very much for your attention in this matter.

Sincerely,

Ivan Kezsbom
President
