RE: Keen Marketing Service, Inc.
Document Number: P99000021656
FEIN: 65-1124654

Dear Sir or Madam:

It has been discovered that the above Corporation has been administratively dissolved by the State of Florida for failure to file its annual report back in 2001. This fact was discovered when we inquired of the Florida Department of Revenue regarding a corporate tax refund from 2000 and received a correspondence from the department indicating that they had two different FEI numbers for the Corporation. Upon receiving the correspondence, we searched the Florida Department of State, Division of Corporations' Online Inquiry website and found that the FEI number was incorrect and that the Corporation had been administratively dissolved. The Corporate president was unaware of this fact, and upon further inquiry regarding the receipt of the annual reports for the past three years, he stated that he did not receive them or they would have been filed. We believe that the annual reports were not received because of a mailing address change for the Corporation. In 2000, the Corporation obtained a post office box to receive its mail. This was necessary because the street address mail box was too small to handle the volume of mail coming to the business address and the mail would fall out of the mail box or be returned to the post office by the postman. We can only speculate that the annual report was lost or not delivered for the 2001 year and that no report was generated for 2002 and 2003 because of the Administrative Dissolution.

Because the annual reports were never received by the Corporation, we believe reasonable cause exists for the abatement of the $600.00 reinstatement fee. The Corporation is enclosing a Reinstatement Application along with a check for $450.00 ($150.00 for each of the past three years). The Reinstatement Application has the Corporation's correct mailing address and FEIN, which need to be corrected in the State's registry.

Respectfully yours,

Thomas A. White, CPA
