Division of Corporations:

To whom it may concern,

On behalf of both corporations listed on the heading hereof, last week before the holiday I spoke with a person in the division and explained to her that I did not receive the corporate forms for renewal for two of the three companies I am involved in. They later showed up at my attorneys office who is listed on the form as the registered agent. I am not saying that they were incorrectly sent to some other address other than to me, because we do have a busy household and they may very well have been sent here. Sometimes the mail gets put in the wrong place by the kids as an example. However, as we live on "Riverside Drive" and there is a Riverside Drive on both sides of the IntraCoastal Waterway opposite each other, sometimes our mail does not make it to our home or we get it very late. I believe this is most likely what happened.

Please except these two checks for reinstatement and note that I have changed the address to the law firm's new address so that in the future I will not have to be concerned with receiving the forms and filing on time.

Thank you and have a splendid day.

Sincerely,
Stephen B. Cejner
President
