Dear Sir or Madam:

I just checked our corporate status on line and found your website did not list the 2003 Annual Report as having been filed. A clerk at your office indicated if the report was not listed, then it had not likely been filed. He also indicated I should download the enclosed 2003 UBR form and send it, with a check and this letter explaining our situation.

In January 2003, the corporate name and officers were changed. I thought the annual report had also been filed at that time. Obviously, during the confusion of processing the paperwork, the 2003 form was not filed, as I had anticipated.

Because I thought this UBR form had been filed in January, I am asking for leniency with respect to the late filing penalty.

Thank you for your consideration.
