RE: UBR filings

Dear Sir or Madam,

Enclosed please find the UBR filings for four business entities: Robert A. Lawrence, P.A., which was closed on 12/31/01; Fisher and Lawrence P.A., which was opened as new business and registered on 12/31/01, and two of our clients, Techwood Construction, and H&M Auto Center. I have also enclosed four checks for $150.00 each for each UBR filing.

As managing partner for the new law firm, Fisher and Lawrence, P.A., I am solely responsible for the late filings. Nonetheless, I am requesting a waiver of the late filing fees due to the problems arising from the relocation of our practice from Palm Beach County to Miami-Dade County, and repeated construction/build-out problems in setting up our new offices.

Apparently, these documents were misfiled during our office construction sometime between March and May, and were not rediscovered until our accountant called me yesterday, when he discovered the UBR folder while reviewing first and second quarter payroll documents.

I would respectfully ask that you do not penalize our clients, Techwood Construction and H&M Auto Center, as they are not responsible, and you apply this same latitude to our firms as well. Should you require additional fees, please contact me directly.

I thank you for your consideration and assistance with this matter.

Sincerely,

Robert Lawrence
