To Whom It May Concern,

Enclosed you will find our check for $150.00 along with the completed Uniform Business Report for the year 2000. We never received the first notification that such a report was due and with this being our second year in business we were unaware that such a report existed and needed to be completed on a yearly basis. We did move our company so my only conclusion as to why we did not receive the notification is that our mail was improperly forwarded. We do apologize for any inconveniences and greatly appreciate the waiving of the late fee. We are a small business and will be sure that this form in the future is completed in the allotted time.

Thank You,

Ernest F. Rubio
