Re: Reinstatement #P99000028678

To Whom It May Concern:

Please let me take a moment of your time to explain the lapse in the corporate license for my company. You can see from my records that the company was established in March 18, 1999. I am a first time business owner. I had gone to an accounting/management company to assist in setting up the company. Unfortunately, there were a few things they did not make me aware of, one being the renewal of the corporate license. We have since moved to Lee County from Palm Beach County and have maintained all other licenses and permits without any problems. I have even acquired my contractors license.

It was not until my wife inquired about the unemployment taxes and forms not being sent to us that she discovered the Corporation had been dissolved. We were very surprised to hear this as we assumed, once incorporated, always incorporated. We were never aware of a renewal process. We strive very hard to maintain a good solid business. We pay our taxes and would have never intentionally let the corporation dissolve.

Enclosed is the reinstatement form, of which you will never see from Accurate Glass & Door, Inc. again. Now that we know, I assure you the renewal will always be done in a timely manner. I plead with you to understand my situation, and forgive my ignorance. I am also enclosing a check for $300.00 for reinstatement, as we should be due for renewal again in January of 2002. Please forward all annual reports and renewal information to the mailing address on the form enclosed.

I appreciate your kindness and understanding.

Sincerely,

William P. Cogburn
Owner/President
