To Whom It May Concern,

On or about July of 1999 I moved my company's office from the Gulf to Bay Blvd location, where I was renting space from my wife, to the apartment address shown above and on the enclosed 2000 Uniform Business Report changes. At that time I was separating from my wife and moving my home and business to its present location. I contacted the post office and was informed that they would not forward mail from a "store front" business location to an apartment address. I then asked my wife to forward all mail.

Since that time, our relationship has deteriorated and my mail has not been getting to me. This 2000 UBR was sent to me in mid-August. My business is not operating and has made no money at this time.

Since I had not received it on time, I am enclosing the regular payment of $150. If there is to be a late fee charged to me for not filing, I will pay it. I respectfully ask that you take my circumstances into consideration and see fit to waive any late fees.

Thank you for your consideration.

Respectfully,

Michael Williamson
Director/President
