To whom it may concern:

Enclosed, please find, my Uniform Business Report along with my check for $150.00.

The reason for this particular check amount is I am writing you to ask for relief from the $400.00 penalty that has been imposed. This company is barely a year old and a very small business as well. To be quite frank, I was not even familiar with this report nor did I receive your first mailing. Please also notice that an incorrect zip code had been recorded on this return and that it needs to be changed for me to receive future mailings from you.

I understand the reason that you impose penalties and that if this was to ever happen to my company again, I would certainly deserve it. However, I do not believe that it is the States intent, to impose such large penalties on a fledgling, small company, who is just getting started and learning of it's responsibilities to you.

Please be assured that I have also met with my accountant, since the receipt of this report, and have asked him to advise me of any other reports or forms that I am responsible for, so that I will always remain compliant to the State of Florida and all others.

I thank you in advance for your understanding and reconsideration of the penalty. I'll look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Norma Rea
President
