To Whom It May Concern,

The purpose of this letter is to request a waiver of the $400 late fee for filing the attached Uniform Business Report (UBR) after the May 1 required date. A copy of the UBR was requested from the Division of Corporations on June 30, 2000.

I realize that failure for me to receive this report for filing is not an excuse, however, either I did not receive the report or did not realize it's importance if, in fact, it was received.

My corporation was just formed last year. Therefore, this would have been the initial requirement to fill out the Uniform Business Report. It is quite possible it got over looked.

I was reminded of my possible negligence by my CPA during the latest actions of filing the Florida Division of Unemployment Compensation Employer's Quarterly Report and the Employers Federal Tax Return (Form 941).

My corporation is very small, having done only approximately $5500 of wages paid last year and consisting only of me and my wife.

Therefore, I'm enclosing a check for $150.00 with the completed UBR and humbly request consideration be given on your part to waive the $400.00 late fee.

Sincerely,

Gary D. Ray
