RE: AM Dugre & Associates Corporation
Document # P99000032952

Dear Sirs:

My office is writing to you on behalf of our client regarding the 2000 Uniform Business Report. The report received by our client states that this is the second notice for filing of the UBR and that they have 60 days to file the report.

Our client previously signed and enclosed check #1205, copy enclosed, with the original report on April 20, 2000. I have enclosed a duplicate copy of the original report for your records. However, in conversation with my client regarding the status of the original check clearing his bank account, we determined that check #1205 is still outstanding. My client has thus voided that check from his checkbook balance and has immediately reissued check #1322 in the amount of $150.00.

We are requesting his account status updated to reflect the original filed report and any penalties assessed be abated.

If you have any questions or concerns please give me a call.

Sincerely,

Louis Mamo & Co.

Domenick A. Torillo, CPA
