Pursuant to section 607.0202, Florida Statutes, the following information is set forth:

No director of the corporation shall have personal liability arising out of an action whether by or in the right of the corporation or otherwise for monetary damages for breach of his or her duty as a director; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not limit or eliminate the personal liability of a director with respect to (i) acts or omissions that the director at the time of such breach knew or believed were clearly in conflict with the best interest of the corporation, (ii) any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit, or (iii) acts or omissions occurring prior to the date the provisions became effective. As used herein, the term "improper personal benefit" does not include a director's reasonable compensation or other reasonable incidental benefit for or on account of his service as a director, officer, employee, independent contractor, attorney, or consultant of the corporation. A provision permitted by this Chapter in the articles of incorporation, bylaws, or a contract or resolution indemnifying or agreeing to indemnify a director against personal liability shall be fully effective whether or not there is a provision in the articles of incorporation limiting or eliminating personal liability.

Pursuant to section 607.0203, Florida Statutes, the following information is set forth:

The effective date requested is April 5, 1999.

The undersigned incorporator has executed these Articles of Incorporation this 5th day of April, 1999.
