Dear Department of State,

I recently received a letter about a payment that I was billed for and did not pay.

I am truly sorry about the payment not being received, but I have no memory of receiving a bill from the Department of State.

If I had received a bill from the Department of State I would have paid it right away.

I called the phone number on the letter I received and talked to a nice lady, who said I should write a letter explaining why the payment of $150.00 was not received.

Would you please consider this payment of $150.00 as payment to the bill I did not receive?

I'm asking for such kindness, it would be a grate help in my business.

Thank You Very Much!
