RE: Sonja L. Baldwin, Incorporated, ref # p99000034773

Dear Sir or Madam,

Enclosed is the copy of the annual report that I filed with a $150.00 fee. I had included a letter requesting deferment of the late fee as I did not receive the first notice. I did this on the advice of the Division of Corporations. After calling the Division of Corporations again, upon receiving a letter stating that I still owed the late penalty, they gave me the number to the Annual Report Section. I explained that I did not receive the first notice and had requested via letter a deferment but seemingly had been rejected. Since my letter was not also returned to me the person speaking to me assumed that the letter had become separated and instructed me to write another letter, attaching it to the copy of the annual report. I am still requesting a deferment based on the fact that I did not receive the 1st notice. This is my first year incorporated and I unfortunately was not expecting it. I hope this will clear up this matter and I now have the expected date of next years annual report marked on my calendar. Please contact me if you have any questions at 561-637-4679.

Sincerely,

Sonja L. Baldwin
President
