To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this letter to ask for special consideration and leniency. We formed this corporation one year ago in July of 1999. Because of a lack of funds, we were unable to hire our associate who is an accountant. Instead, I have been handling the accounting job myself.

For the past year I have been acquainting myself with all the requirements running the corp. The 941's; the 940's; W-2's; etc. With the help of the state and federal "help" phone numbers I have managed to get everything figured out, paid, and filed on time. I was, however, unaware of the requirement to file the Uniform Business Report.

The first I have known of it, was the "second" notice which we received about a week ago. From reading it over and discussing it on the phone with your office, I have become aware that a first notice was sent out some time back in Dec./Jan. Why I did not receive this first and original notice, I do not know. We do share a mail room with the West Palm Beach Auto Auction (we run the cafeteria inside their building) and that could be where the form could have been misplaced. Being that we were new here last year, it did take the mail room a while to get used to sorting mail for us, Cruise In Café. There were several items which our vendors assured us were mailed which we never received.

I realize now, after speaking to my accountant friend, that I should have been aware of the need to file the UBR for 2000, but due to my lack of experience, I was ignorant.

It is in the light of these facts, that I ask for special consideration. Namely, accepting my UBR with the original amount of $150.00 (which I was told was the
