Re: Reinstatement of Corporate status

waiver of fine(s)

EIN 59-3598514

Dear Division of Corporations:

I am in receipt of your notice of administrative revocation of my corporate status:

I am filing the reinstatement paperwork as was instructed; however, I am once again humbly requesting a waiver of the additional fees. You will note in my first letter to your division, I explained that I had not received the first UBR notice probably because we were in the midst of moving our office during the first quarter of the year. Once things settled down, I received the notice that we had not submitted our report along with the annual fee and so now the fine had been levied. This was what prompted my letter to your offices asking for a waiver, as this sum of money is quite difficult for my company to absorb and we had inadvertently overlooked the original UBR filing date. I take full responsibility for this oversight.

Enclosed are my correspondence with your division, the completed reinstatement form, and the original $150 filing fee. Please accept this as payment in full. If need be, I will be happy to file an appeal or follow up as needed to retain my corporate status.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Nancy D. Racies". The signature is written in dark ink and is positioned above the printed name.

RE: waiver of filing fee
EIN 59-3598514

Dear Division of Corporations:

I received my UBR with a note attached indicating that my company had been assessed a late filing fee due to missing the first filing date.

I was not aware that the first UBR had been mailed. My company headquarters moved at the end of January, which initiated a forward put on my mail and perhaps the first report was not received. Although I expect the UBR every year, in the hustle and bustle of moving possibly it was overlooked. The additional fee is not something my small company can easily afford.

Please consider a waiver for the fee. I will be happy to submit the usual $150 along with the updated UBR report.

Sincerely,

Nancy D. Racies
President, The Hartwell Group, Inc....

When you sent the letter did you also send the $150.00 payment and UBR?

You will need to send the completed Uniform Business Report, payment of $150.00 and another letter explaining that you did not receive notice. If you do not have the '03 UBR you can download it from our web site, www.sunbiz.org.

You will need to have your entity's document number available before proceeding. If you do not have it select "online searches & document Images". Once you have the number return to this page and follow the instructions below.

Go to our web site www.sunbiz.org and from the home page select (in the following order):

"Download Filing Forms"

"Florida Corporations (profit & NonProfit)"

"Profit Uniform Business Report/Annual Report"

Enter you entity's document number in the area provided.

You should now see the following message instructing you to:

Subject: UBR-follow up

We received a late notice for our UBR. I wrote a letter to your office to request a waiver of the late filing fee. We had moved early this year and possible the first notice of the UBR was overlooked because I never saw it. Please advise. We are happy to send in the $150, but the penalty fee is difficult for our small company to handle.

Thank you for your time.
