Dear Sir or Madame:

I am not in receipt of your profit corporate annual report.

Due to the fact that I am a new business owner, the corporate annual report in question was not submitted because of negligence or responsibility on my behalf, but rather for not being properly assessed by my accountant and because I moved to another location, and the original registered agent was not found until recently, The report was never received. In view of this circumstance, I kindly request consideration in the waiving of penalties with the assurance that this oversight will never happen again.

Once again your consideration of this matter is greatly appreciated. Please feel free to contact me at 786-218-7154 should you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Rolando Exposito
