Dear Sirs,

I must file for reinstatement, I have received this statement in the mail. I have enclosed a check for 150.00 for the reinstatement fee. I was told the fee may exceed this total, however the intent of this letter is to state my situation. My accountant had been ill all during the prior year and passed away last November. I was unaware of any delinquency on my corporate status until I received your letter. All paperwork I receive went directly to my accountants' office and unfortunately her daughters who had taken over her business took an extremely long time deciding who was taking care of my business and getting me caught up on all my paper work. I ask for mercy on the payment, I run a small business and simply cannot afford any more fees. I apologize for any inconvenience, I ask leniency on this situation as I will not make the same mistake again. Thank you for your time. Please help me.

Thanks,

Pete Aromando
