Dear Division of Corporations,

I have recently received a notice of intent to dissolve letter in the mail for my business. I would like to apologize for any inconvenience in my payments. I never received my original annual report notice. My address is correct, however I do have other individuals who also receive mail at my address. I have not yet attained a post office box for my corporate mail but intend on doing so as soon as this situation is resolved. When I went to file online I noticed that there was an additional $400 fee associated with this account on top of the normal $150 fee. I have no problems paying the normal $150 Corp fee, however I am BEGGING for leniency in waving the additional $400 fee. I am a small Corp and every little penny I earn is important and because of this miscommunication I have been put in this situation. I really want to pay my $150 fee but the $400 is just unaffordable for me at this time. Can you please find it in your heart to help me out and wave the late $400 fee? This would mean so much to me and allow me to be able to conduct my business in a normal fashion. I am eager to hear back and have my payment of $150 enclosed in this letter. I am reaching out to you for help, and will do my best so that I am never in this situation again.

I can be reached at 386.479.5095 or atomcomputersinc@yahoo.com anytime.

Thank you for understanding,
Pete Aromando
