Re: Standard Holdings, Inc.

Dear Sir or Madam:

On May 15, 2003, we contacted your office to obtain a Uniform Business Report for the above-referenced for-profit corporation. Enclosed is the completed Report, together with a check in the amount of $150.00 for the filing fee.

Although this report was not filed by May 1, 2003, we are requesting that you accept the $150.00 as the full filing fee and waive the higher filing fee, as the officers of Standard Holdings, Inc. did not receive a Uniform Business Report for the corporation. It appears that the corporate mailing address is correctly listed in your records, and our investigation has not uncovered any reason why they would not have received this Report by a normal mailing, but they did not. Upon realizing that May 1st had come and gone and that they had not filed their annual filing with the state, they contacted this office and we requested a blank report to prepare for filing.

We have submitted this Report with the $150.00 filing fee in good faith and would request written notification if this will not be accepted. Should you require any additional information, please feel free to contact me.

Very truly yours,

Stanley Dale Klett, Jr.
