Dear Sir/Madam,

I just received the attached Uniform Business Report for this year and immediately took the form to my accountant Dennis M Brownlee CPA (813)908-9665. He informed me that this is a second notice and that I am late on my first notice, which he said payment of $150.00 was due May 1. He inquired me as to why I did not send the Uniform Business Report in on time.

I explained to Mr. Brownlee and am explaining to you that I never received the first notice of the Uniform Business Report. If I had I would have taken the report immediately to Mr. Brownlee's office and always carry my checkbook whenever I go to his office, since I am always paying some type of tax.

I would like you to know I have had problems with my mail before. I live in a high density apartment complex where people move in and out. This seems to make postal delivery more difficult than usual.

Joel Weiss, PRES.
