To Whom It May Concern:

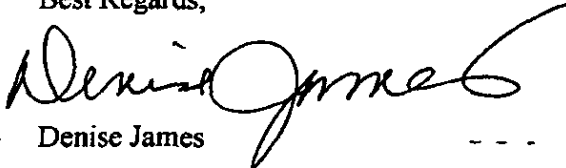

This letter is being sent to you as a result of my conversation with one of your representatives. I received the Uniform Business Report (UBR) in July of 2000, not realizing that it was a "Second Notice". This is the first time that we have seen this report and since we have never owned a business before, we were unaware of the requirement (unintentionally negligent), but, will ensure that we make the required timelines in the future. We respectfully ask for a reprieve of the $400.00 "Late Fee", as we do try to make our deadlines, as they are required.

Enclosed is the standard fee of $150.00 payable upon your immediate receipt. Your representative informed me that these notices are sent every year in the month of January, unfortunately, we often receive mail for the business at our home address and business address which may have been misplaced by our staff.

Again, we will never let this happen again and have changed the address to reflect the appropriate address for these types of notices to be mailed.

We do hope that you will understand and greatly appreciate your leniency if you do choose to lend it.

Best Regards,

Denise James
