NOBLE CORPORATION

March 3, 2001

Division of Corporations
Annual Report/Reinstatement Section

To Whom It May Concern:

Last year the Noble Corporation was dissolved by the Florida Department of State for failure to correctly complete the 2000 corporation annual report/uniform business report. Apparently the form was returned without having placed the corporation's federal tax identification number. Unfortunately this information did not become available to me until I began to research why the 2001 form had not arrived. I have been informed by a representative from the Department of State that since I paid the previous year's report, all I have to submit is the application for reinstatement and a check for $150 for the 2001 report and the corporation will be reinstated.

Sincerely,

Gerard Andres Pasantes
President

NOBLE CORPORATION

June 21, 2001

Division of Corporations
Annual Report/Reinstatement Section

To Whom It May Concern:

The reason I did not respond to your rejection letter dated June 5, 2000 is that I never received said letter. I stated in my first letter, which is also enclosed, that I only became aware of a problem when I did not receive my annual report for 2000. I would greatly appreciate waving of the reinstatement fee as I was not aware my company had been dissolved.

Sincerely,

Gerard Andres Pasantes
President
