To whom it may concern;

I am writing this letter to explain the confusion that occurred with my business. First I want to apologize for my lack of knowledge and inexperience with this matter of registering the business. The only paperwork received was this reinstatement letter/form, we never received the any other paperwork from the above office. Enclosed is a copy of all forms previously sent on 11-5-00 with a letter of explanation. A follow-up call was made to your office, and at that time the person told us to return the letter and send the package back.

We are sending a copy of all forms, since we have not received the original as yet from your office. Enclosed is a check for $150. for processing our paperwork. Thank you for your assistance and if any other information is needed please contact your office.

JOSE ABRAHAM.

To Whom it may concern:

I am writing this letter to explain the confusion that occurred with my business. First I want to apologize for my lack of knowledge and inquire into this matter of registering the business. I don't want to make any excuse, however this was our first year in such a role and a lot of different changes occurred all at once.

After receiving the reinstatement application I called the office of FL. Department of State and then became aware of what was needed. My sincere apology and assurance that this will not happen again.

Enclosed is a check for $150. for registering Alpha & Omega Homes. I would greatly appreciate that the fee could be waived due to the misunderstanding.

Thank you;

J. ABRAHAM
