To Whom It May Concern,

99900044689

I received a second notice informing me that I did not file my 2001 Uniform Business Report as of June 8, 2001. I sent my report along with a check for $150.00 in before May 1, 2001 when it was originally due. My bank as per my bank statements has not cleared the check. The only explanation that I can offer is that it got lost in our transition from one city post office to another, misplaced mail is bound to happen in a change this big. I have called both post offices and they can not track or find anything that small, and that if it is something that was accidentally destroyed by them they will send me a letter apologizing and informing me of this. I have not received a letter like this yet. I am asking to please not penalize me for the report being late. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely yours,

Elizabeth Giroux
President, The Glass Lizard
