Re: 2000 Uniform Business Report and Filing Fee

To Whom It May Concern:

As the registered agent and owner representing Merkantile Futures Group, Inc. I am writing to inform you that I never received the 2000 UBR Form in January and received one only a week or so ago. Otherwise I would have filed it as quickly as possible to avoid the increase in fees. I called the Division of Corporations on 7/18/00 and was given instructions, with no guarantee, to write a letter and explain the circumstances. I am asking that you allow me this one time to file the form for the fee of $150.00, which I would have paid had I received a UBR form in January 2000. Although my corporate address has changed, it was still a good address in January. I do not know why I never received one. I am a relatively new corporation that is just now beginning its operations and this would be my first UBR form to be filed with your department. The difference in fees is a big deal for me at this time. I appreciate any help in resolving this issue and in the future I will know that I need a UBR form filed in January of each year.

Enclosed is a check for $150.00 along with the 2000 UBR form.
Thank You.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey S. Merkow
President
