Dear Sir or Madam,

I recently contacted your office in regards to the report which I have sent with this letter. I could not understand why I had to pay $550.00 this year, when I only paid $150.00 last year. I was informed that this was the second notice. I did not receive the first and therefore did not realize it was due. I explained this to a representative, with whom I spoke earlier today and she said to send you this letter asking if you could waive the late fee. As you can see from our records, we have never filed late, and would not have done so this year, if we had receive our first notice. I was told to send $150.00 and this letter and to call back in 10 days to hear your answer.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Carol M. Brown
