RE: VIKING DISTRIBUTORS, INC.

Dear Michelle:

In regard to the subject matter, there is enclosed the 2000 UBR Report and our Trust Account Check No. 01231 in the sum of $300.00 payable to your order for payment of the reinstatement fees according to the information you provided to me.

We are requesting a waiver of any penalties based upon the fact that the UBR Report was not received in our office until some time in late June, 2001. The original address was reflected as our old address and since we have been in the new office for approximately 2 years no forwarding of our mail is automatically forthcoming. However, we do receive mail from the old address many months after the correspondence has been mailed.

Please note that my letters of June 21 and July 20, 2001 were also sent to our old address although the new address was included on the updated report. If either of these two (2) letters are returned to your office for further handling, please remail them to our current address as we have voided the two (2) original checks included in that correspondence.

Upon receipt of this correspondence, please call my office as to verification that the corporation has been reinstated since there is a pending loan transaction relying upon that reinstatement.

Thank you for your cooperation in connection with this matter.

Very truly yours,

HAGEN & HAGEN, P.A.
