Uniform Business Report
Division of Corporations
PO Box 1500
Tallahassee, FL 32302-1500

Dear Sir or Madam:

I am a one-person business that incorporated last year. I did not fully understand my responsibilities for filing the new 2000 UBR.

I had not received the new form in the mail and when I started to file my annual report I went to your web site for assistance. It was there that I found out that there was a new form I had to file. The next business day I had a trip to make and failed to remember to contact your office for a few weeks. I then sent a request for the new UBR. I received the new form in late May. I also called your offices to discuss the penalty and was advised to write a letter requesting a waiver of the penalty.

I have now completed the form and am paying the normal fee of $150. Please forgive the penalty. The $400 extra fee is very steep for a small education consulting firm (where I'm the entire company) and would impose a financial burden. I would greatly appreciate your forgiveness. Having lived through the process once, I better understand my obligation for next year.

Sincerely,

Robert J. Alexander
President
