RE: Mistaken Corporation Dissolution & Address Change

To Whom It May Concern:

We recently applied to register a fictitious name with the Department of State, only to receive a reply back that our corporation is listed as inactive.

We believe this accidentally happened when we moved in June of 2003 and the mail was only forwarded for a few months. As a result, we did not receive the renewal notice. Incidentally, the registered agent, Chaim Druin also moved in the same month, so if a notice was sent to him, it would have also been returned.

I would also like this letter to serve as an official notification of address change with the new corporate address as 17131 NE 11th Avenue, North Miami Beach, FL 33162. The registered agent, Chaim Druin needs to have his new address listed as 1880 Northeast 163rd Street, North Miami Beach, FL 33162.

The consultant I spoke with on the phone to clarify this situation suggested I explain the circumstances and ask that the $600 reinstatement charge be waived in this case, as we never received the notice. It is important to point out that we have consistently filed all financial documents in a timely fashion, and have not defaulted on this or any other official document, ever.

Enclosed please find our check for $450 for the registration of our Corporation for the years, 2004, 2005 and 2006.

Thanking you in advance for your understanding.
