RE: Document # P99000047951

To Whom It May Concern:

I have recently found out that I was required to pay a fee of $150.00 and file an Annual Report each year that I do business. The address that you have on file is for my previous accountant and all correspondence from your office must have been sent to him. Therefore, I did not receive the first or second notices and now am subject to a large penalty (For this reason, and several others, he is my "previous" accountant). My new accountant contacted your office today and they said that the penalty would be waived if I would explain my situation in a letter to you.

Enclosed you will find a Check for $150.00 and the 2000 Annual Report. Please note that there are several changes (New address, Federal ID# and new registered agent) to this report.

With the changes mentioned above I don't anticipate any problems in this area in the future and thank you in advance for your consideration and understanding in this matter.

Sincerely,

M. Sammy Sajjad
