To Whom It May Concern: _____

Per my conversation with one of your representatives, Tina, she suggested that I re-send another letter with the following correspondence.

First, this is a request for a waiver on the newly submitted UBR form that is before you requiring $550.00 filing fee. We are requesting a waiver for the following reasons; May 12th I was told to send a letter explaining why the 1st UBR form was delayed. The representative (Marie Jacobs) said to send a letter (copy within this mailing) along with the original $150.00 filing fee. This was done. Later, I received another letter stating that the $150.00 was received, however the report had not been filed. I sent the required information back to you June 6th (copy within this mailing). After this, I received another UBR form asking for the $550.00 (included within this mailing) mentioned earlier in this letter.

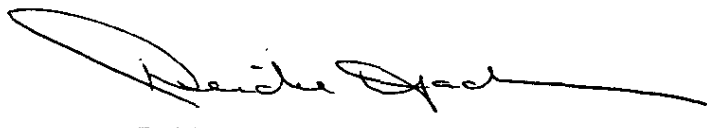

Per my conversation with Tina (7/15/03), I am resending this form, with all of the information requested, and with the request of a waiver. While it may not be policy for your office, would you please send some sort of acknowledgement of these items being received by your office? It would greatly be appreciated.

Should there be any further questions, please feel free to contact me, Deidre Jackson at (941) 545-5694 or George Houston at (941) 812-1848.

Your prompt attention to this matter is appreciated.

Respectfully submitted,

George Houston Jr.
President

To Whom It May Concern:

Per my conversation with Marie Jacobs, I am writing this letter to inform you to the reason of the delay of the report getting to you.

There had been an unexpected death in my family, and it through me behind on various tasks. Upon my return to Bradenton, I realized that I failed to send this report off. It is not the fault of the company; I take full responsibility for this incident.

Your customer service representative, Marie Jacobs, informed me to write a letter as to what happened, with the regular fee of $150.00 (enclosed) and send it to you.

Should there be any further questions, please feel free to contact me, Deidre Jackson, at (941) 746-6633.

Again, thank you for your consideration and prompt attention to this matter.

Respectfully submitted,
