Dear Sir or Madam,

This is my second letter that I am wrighting in regards to the reason that the renewal form for the 2000 Uniform Business Report was turned in after May 1st.

Been this is my first time having a Corporation, I was not aware of the procedures. After learning from a friend of mine that have a Corporation ~~that you have to renew every year.~~

And due to fact that the accounting firm that did all the paper work on this, and had them self as the Registered Agent was sold, and the owner, Linda Bousquet moved to Houston, Texas. And did not leave a forwarding address. I then called the accounting firm that She sold her business to, and they inform me that they had no paper work for me at there office.

Soon after I contacted your office in Tallahassee, and a form was sent to me, inwhich I turned in promptly.

I am please asking to waive the $400.00 late fee that is been levied against me. I am a small one man operation, and so $400.00 to me is a very large amount of money to me.

And like I mention before I did not know of this procedure at all. Its not I would delibratly sit there and let the time go by, because I would diffinatly prefer to pay $150.00 instead of $550.00.

Thanking you in advance for your cooperation.

Sincerly,

Cecil S. Williams/President
