To Whom It May Concern:

Please relay the following information to the appropriate office or persons:

I am writing to request an extension of the original filing fee amount of $150.

My 2001 U.B.R was ready with plenty of time, but was misplaced and forgotten because of other serious personal matters that had occurred at the time. It was not until I recently received the 60 day notice with the $550 filing fee that I had realized that I had never mailed in the original way back in April. At the time my wife and I had delivered our daughter, and were simultaneously dealing with my father's failing health due to Cancer.

As collaboration it may be verified that I had also at the time requested an extension of my Business and Personal tax filing due to my personal attention needed elsewhere.

I can provide medical documentation for both circumstances if it would help, and only ask for the extension, because our corporation is a new and small business who recently experienced a very trying time.

If this matter requires additional attention please feel free to contact me at 954.723.9393.

Otherwise I will thank you in advance for any understanding or consideration you may extend us.

Best regards,

Ivan R. Rodriguez
