Dear Sir or Madam:

I am writing in response to a correspondence, sent to me regarding a $400. late fee. Last year, I received the forms and just did not get them in on time. I paid the late fee, no complaint, because it was my own fault. While in my tax accountants office, he filed a change of address form, (Form 8822), to you for me, due to moving. A copy is enclosed. This year, I never received my forms. Being a new corporation, I have been really struggling to stay on top of things, I did not realize that I should have had received the form(s) until too late. I have solved this oversight and it will not be repeated. I have enclosed a copy of your letter, which has another incorrect address on it. (I just recently received it, compared to the date of your letter.) I would greatly appreciate it if you would wave the fee this year. I called the (850) 488-9000, phone number and was instructed to send this letter with an explanation of the circumstances. I appreciate your time and understanding in this matter.

Sincerely,

Richard R. Zimmerman
