To Whom it may concern:

I just received this Reinstatement notice in the mail. I originally had an attorney handle all legal aspects of my company and trusted him to take care of keeping me current with all of the legalities involved in running a corporation. He, without informing me, abandoned my paperwork and I did not know I had to file my business reports in order to stay current. This is the first I am hearing that my corporation has been dissolved. I currently have more than 10 employees working here and cannot close down. I know I am responsible for this and feel terrible for being ignorant in this situation. I will file all necessary paperwork for this corporation with a new attorney from now on.

Can you please waive the reinstatement fee and make my corporation active again? I have enclosed a check for $158.75 like I was told by one of the helpful agents I spoke to when I called the Dept. of State for instructions on how to handle this matter. I will make sure all procedures are followed from now on.

Thank you for taking the time to read this.

Sincerely,

Frank DeSena
