Re: Terra Mar Trucking, Inc. - Articles of Incorporation

Ladies & Gentlemen:

Enclosed please find the original and a copy of the articles of incorporation for the captioned proposed for profit corporation.

I further enclose my Law Account check No. 1287 payable to the order of the Department of State, Florida in the amount of $122.50 to cover the fees for incorporation and registered agent filing and the cost of a certified copy of the articles.

If you are in need of additional information or I have miscalculated the fees please call me collect and we will be glad to take care of the problem.

Very truly yours,

RICHARD B. AUSTIN

ARTICLE X - INDEMNITY:

The corporation shall indemnify any director, officer or employee or any former director, officer or employee of the corporation, or any person who may have served at its request as a director, officer or employee of another corporation in which it holds shares of capital stock, or of which it is a creditor, against expenses actually and necessarily incurred by said director, officer or employee in connection with the defense of any action, suit or proceeding in which said person is made a part by reason of being or having been such a director, officer or employee, except in relation to matters as to which said person shall be adjudged in such action, suit or proceeding to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of said person's duty. The corporation may also reimburse to any director, officer or employee the reasonable cost of settlement of any such action, suit or proceeding if it shall be found by a majority of a committee composed of the directors not involved in the matter in controversy (whether or not a quorum) that it was to the interest of the corporation that such settlement be made and that such director, officer or employee was not guilty of negligence or misconduct. Such rights of indemnification and reimbursement shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which such director, officer or employee may be entitled under any By-law agreement, vote of shareholders or otherwise.

ARTICLE XI - SPECIAL POWERS:

This corporation reserves the right to amend or repeal any provisions contained in these Articles of Incorporation, and any right conferred upon the stockholders is subject to this reservation.

The initial By-Laws of this corporation shall be adopted by the directors. The By-Laws may be amended from time to time by either the stockholders or the directors, but the directors may not alter or amend any By-Laws adopted by the stockholders.

Ownership of corporation stock shall not be required to make any person eligible to hold office either as an officer or a director of the corporation.

The stockholders may, by By-Law provision or by stockholders agreement, recorded in the corporate records, impose such restrictions on the sale, transfer or encumbrance of the stock of this corporation as the stockholders may see fit.

Any subscriber or stockholder present at any meeting, either in person or by proxy, and any director present in person at any meeting of the Board of Directors shall conclusively be deemed to have received proper notice of such meeting unless the stockholder or director shall make an objection at such meeting as to any defect or insufficiency of notice or the terms of the notice.

Any stockholder, director or employee may engage, directly or indirectly, in dealings with the corporation as either a creditor or debtor as long as that individual, prior to the commencement of the conduct leading to or creating this relationship provided there has been full disclosure of the interest and the nature of the potential conflict to the Board of Directors or at a meeting of the stockholders prior to the commencement of the course of conduct or action which results in the appearance of a conflict of interest between the individual and the corporation. This clause is not intended to invalidate any transaction which would otherwise be valid under the common or applicable statutory law. It is intended that no stockholder or director shall benefit from any dealings with the corporation without the prior knowledge and consent of the other stockholders and directors of the corporation.

The Board of Directors is hereby authorized to make provision for the reasonable compensation to its members for their service as directors, and to fix the basis and conditions upon which compensation will be paid. Any director of the corporation may also serve the corporation in any other capacity and receive compensation therefore in any form.
